The Commander Says . . .

Happy New Year to all members and friends of South Hills Power Squadron.

Thanks to Bill and Shelia Macko for a great Squadron Christmas party. A good time was had by all.

Thanks also to Lew and Vi Doughton for hosting a fun outing to Little Lake Theater to see "Uh Oh - Here Comes Christmas" After seeing this series of vignettes, we will never feel the same about poinsettias again. The evening got everyone into the holiday spirit.

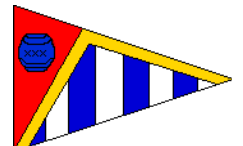

The upcoming year is sure to bring plenty of excitement with the Pittsburgh Boat Show on 23 - 25 January and 30 January - 1 February, the Spring D/7 Conference on 12 - 14 March, our Change of watch coming up on 28 March, and the USPS Spring Governing Board on 19 - 23 May in Pittsburgh. This is our chance to shine. We have an active education program in place and plenty of opportunities for our members to pitch in and help.

Our squadron workers have been awarded a merit mark for the past year. They include: Warren Bell, Dennis Berton, Dave Bonta, Julie Bonta, Ken Campbell, Selden Campen, Bob Colteryahn, Neil Cook, Tom Cross, Helen Davis, Don Hollis, Mary Ann Hollis, Mike Hollis, Shelia Macko, Bill Macko, Hank Marzina, Mary Lou Marzina, Gerry Marzzarella, Mac McDonald, Tom McFate, Dorothy Meloy, Christine Orié, Tom Saracco, Art Schock, Don Stark, Jim Stark, Marjie Stark, John Steck, Bob Timmins, and Dick Toler. We have some new members who are well on their way to a merit mark for next year. Congratulations, all.

We give special recognition to new Life Members Mac McDonald and Art Schock. They each have earned 25 merit marks and have therefore achieved Life Membership status in USPS. Congratulations.

Let's keep up the great work in 2004!
